GBRS Group Shotgun Shell Sleeve Safety Instruction Guide

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the GBRS Group Shotgun Shell Sleeve. This product is designed to provide a secure and convenient way to store and retrieve shotgun shells. To ensure your safety and the efficient use of this product, please read this safety instruction guide carefully.

General Safety Guidelines

- Always inspect the Shotgun Shell Sleeve before each use for any signs of wear or damage.
- Ensure the Shotgun Shell Sleeve is compatible with your Single Rifle Magazine Pouch before installation.
- Store the Shotgun Shell Sleeve in a cool, dry place when not in use.
- Keep the product away from children and vulnerable individuals to prevent accidental injury.
- Report any unsafe conditions or accidents involving this product to the appropriate authorities.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Use only compatible shotgun shells as specified by the manufacturer.
- Avoid overloading the sleeve beyond its capacity of 4 rounds to prevent malfunction.
- Ensure that the shotgun shells are properly seated within the sleeve for secure retention.
- Do not expose the Shotgun Shell Sleeve to extreme temperatures or harsh chemicals.
- Handle the shotgun shells with care to avoid accidental discharge.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

Installation

1. Compatibility Check: Ensure that the Shotgun Shell Sleeve is compatible with your Single Rifle Magazine Pouch.
2. Positioning: Align the sleeve over the magazine pouch, ensuring it fits snugly.
3. Secure Attachment: Press down firmly to secure the sleeve in place. Ensure there are no gaps between the sleeve and the pouch.

Usage

1. Loading Shells: Insert shotgun shells into the sleeve, ensuring they are oriented correctly for easy retrieval.
2. Retrieving Shells: Grasp the sleeve and gently pull the shells out one at a time. Avoid pulling more than one shell at a time to maintain organization.
3. Storage: When not in use, remove the sleeve and store it in a safe location.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the GBRS Group Shotgun Shell Sleeve in accordance with local regulations for textile waste.
- Do not incinerate the sleeve as it may release harmful substances.
- If the sleeve is damaged or no longer usable, consider recycling materials where possible.
