Introduction

Thank you for choosing the HOGUE® OverMolded® Grip Extension Pad for Glock 42®. This product is designed to enhance your grip and control while using your Glock 42® pistol. To ensure safe usage and to maximize the benefits of this product, please read and follow the safety instructions outlined in this guide.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that you are familiar with your Glock 42® and its operation before installing the grip extension pad.
- Always treat your firearm as if it is loaded, even when it is not.
- Keep the grip extension pad and all firearm accessories out of reach of children and unauthorized users.
- Regularly inspect the grip extension pad for any wear or damage. Do not use if damaged.
- Follow all local laws and regulations regarding firearm accessories.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Only use the HOGUE® OverMolded® Grip Extension Pad with Glock 42® .380 ACP 6round magazines.
- Ensure that the grip extension pad is securely attached before using your firearm.
- Avoid using excessive force when installing or removing the grip extension pad to prevent damage.
- Do not modify the grip extension pad in any way, as this may compromise its safety and functionality.
- Be cautious of the added length and weight of your firearm due to the grip extension pad, especially during handling and storage.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation:

- Ensure the firearm is unloaded and pointed in a safe direction.
- Remove the magazine from the Glock 42®.
- Align the grip extension pad with the base of the magazine.
- Firmly press the grip extension pad onto the magazine until it clicks into place.
- Verify that the grip extension pad is securely attached by gently pulling on it.

2. Usage:

- Hold the firearm with a firm grip, utilizing the added finger groove for enhanced control.
- Practice safe handling procedures at all times when using your firearm.
- Regularly check the grip extension pad during use to ensure it remains securely attached.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the grip extension pad in accordance with local regulations regarding plastic and rubber materials.
- Do not dispose of the grip extension pad in a manner that may pose a risk to the environment or public safety.
